

UP114 PROJECT FORMULATION AND APPRAISAL*Credits 3 (L=3, S=0, W=0)*INTERNAL ASSESSMENT (TERM WORK)*50 MARKS*UNIVERSITY EXAMINATION*50 MARKS*FOCUS:

- Guide students through the process of formulation and evaluation of public and private sector programs in urban and regional planning.

CONTENTS:

- Project identification, formulation, appraisal, monitoring & evaluation & its role in planning procedure
- Methodologies for project identification and formulations, Opportunity studies, feasibility reports & detailed project reports, Policy parameters for appraisal of project reports
- Techniques for data collection, organizing, developing and presenting research material..
- Review of project appraisal techniques adopted by financing agencies
- Financial, Economic & Social Cost – Benefit analysis, Cash Flow analysis, Measure of project profitability based on market prices, efficiency prices & on overall development parameters.

METHOD:

- This course examines a series of case studies to introduce students to the procedural framework and informational basis related to project formulation and Appraisal.
- Student writes a memorandum on the problem laying out the major issues and defining a specific program of evaluation including an inventory of data needs and sources and a time and budget forecast

REFERENCES :

Sr. No.	Title	Author
01.	Research Methodology in Geography – Social, Spatial and Policy dimensions	H.N. Misra & Vijai P. Singh
02	Decision Support System in Urban Planning	Harry Timbermans
03.	The Stairway to excellence	G. Narayana
04.	Business Management	Gita Piramal